The Republicans of Pennsylvania, at their state convention nominated Gen'l James G. Beaver for Governor.

At the election on the 17th the old Board of Directors of the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, were unanimously re-elected.

The Telegraph announces the death of James Vick, the well known seed man, at his home in Rochester, N. Y., on the 16th inst.

Hon. R. G. Horr, the popular Representative in Congress, from the 8th District, is spending a few days with his friends at Saginaw.

Mr. E. B. Fisher, the enterprising city editor of the Grand Rapids Eagle, has purchased an interest in the firm of A. B. Turner & Co., so that enterprising paper.

Ex-Governor and ex-Representative in Congress, C. C. Washburn of Wisconsin, died one day this week, at Hot Springs, Arkansas.
He was one of the ablest men in the west, and an ardent Republican.

The House Committee on elections have reported that Lowe, the Greenback contestant of the seat from the eighth Alabama district, now held by Wheeler, Democrat, was legally elected and is entitled to the seat.

A Washington telegram says that the resignation of Senator Hill is now in the hand of Gov. Colquitt of Georgia, and will be acted upon in a few days. The gentlemen most promi-nently named for the Senator's position are Ex-Senator Gordon and Gov.
Colquitt. It is said also that Senator Brown will soon resign, the cause of both resignations being poor health.

The Cincinnati, Ohio, Commercial, which was decidedly the ablest of the advocates for the passage of the present Silver Coinage law, now says that "we should, in the interest of the double standard, and in behalf of the American system of coinage of the two precious metals, stop the forced coinage of legal tender silver dollars, but no one of influence seems to have the courage."

A State convention has been called to meet at Raleigh, North Carolina, on the 7th of June, to take measures to organize a liberal party pledged to the restoration of local self-government, the purification of the ballot-box and the education of the masses.
It is expected this convention will nominate a ticket which will be endorsed by the forthcoming Republican State Convention. Should this be the outcome of the convention of the 7th of June, prominent men representing different parts of the State, perdict the defeat of the Bourbon Democracy in the next election.

Adam Forepaugh's Nineteenth Annual Tour with the Only Great Circus in Two Rings.

The Great Forepaugh Show is coming to Owosso, May 31st. For nineteen years the name of Adam Forepaugh has been a familiar household word from one end of our country to the other, carrying with it a piquant odor of foreign climes and calling up visions of the entertaining arena, the instructive managerie, and those other innumerable attractions and interests that go to make up the first-class show. No other manager has ever been able to make a tented exhibition before the public so many years, and it is safe to add no other has exhibited the enterprise in securing new and rare attractions from year to year or enjoyed the success which has crowned the efforts of Mr. Forepaugh.
Ever eclipsing his rivals in the matter of securing novelties, and having once gained the confidence of the public, never abusing it by sensational and flash advertisements, which were not justified by reality, he has made, for himself and his show a reputation which demands no further defense at our hands to satisfy the public of the sterling entertainment which he offers them at a merely nominal admission fee. A correspondent asked Mr. Forepaugh why it was that he never resorted to the advertising schemes and artifices in which most showmen delight. His reply was: "The good name of my show, the confidence of the public have proved far more valuable than a temporary success gained at the expense of my managerial reputation for fulfilling all I promise. This has been the ruling principle of my life, and the public who are familiar with his excellent bill of attractions will bear us out in stating that the show itself has invariably proven all it was advertised. We have not space to mention one half the attractions announced this year. It comes to us greatly increased over anything ever shown here in the past. Since the close of last season Mr. Forepaugh has spent a sum of money almost fabulous in its immensity, adding to his Zoological, Arena, Mechanical, and Professional Novelties. Among the leading features of the arena may be mentioned the famous array of foreign talent: the Leonetti in his wonderful spiral ascensions with a bicycle; the great Sibbon Troupe, from Paris; the Misses Renz and Deacon, leading European equestriennes; John Pervis, the famous English clown, and his troupe of donkey actors; Albion, the performer upon the bicycle eight feet high, and the wonderful exhibitions of the Zola Sisters on the high wire, and the blood-curdling cannon act of one of these ladies, in which she is discharged from a cannon fifty feet into mid-air and caught in the arms of a lady who hangs by her feet from a trapeze. The amusing and interesting performances of the twenty-two trained elephants, the largest and most intelligent herd ever handled by any show, exhibited by Mr. Adam Forepaugh, Jr., a youth of only eighteen years.

A grand Spectacular Street Parade will be given between 9 and 10 A. M., presenting such a pageant as was never witnessed at the pomps and feasts of ancient Rome. The tents of the show are all new and arranged after the most modern style, every convenience and comfort of the audience being consulted. Commodious, cool, safe, waterproof, and fitted out with luxurious cushioned chairs, they resemble more the amphitheatre of ancient times, in all its wealth of splendor and elegant luxury, than anything modern to which we could compare them. The great show exhibits here Wednesday, May 31.

Dramatic Entertainment, Opera Hall, Monday Evening, May 22.
Next Monday evening Miss Gertrude Griswold, of Toledo, will give an entertainment at Opera Hall, consisting of readings from Shakespeare and recitations from popular authors. Miss Griswold is highly recommended as a young lady of ability in her profession, she has been under the tutelage of Hon. E. H.
Thompson, of Flint, one of the first Shakespearean scholars of the day, and we bespeak for her a cordial reception and a good house in Owosso. Admission 25 cents.

Pioneer at Rest.
On Monday the 15th inst. Mr. John Todd one of the veteran pioneers of Michigan died at the residence of his son, Hon. E. A. Todd, aged 88 years.
Mr. Todd was born in the state of Pennsylvania, March 5th, 1794, was a soldier in the war of 1812 and was at the battle of Fort Erie. In 1819 he came to Michigan crossing Lake Erie on the steamer "Walk-in-the-Water," the pioneer boat on the western waters. In 1825 he married Polly Smith, who resided near Pontiac Michigan, who passed on before to the bright scenes beyond in 1868.
Mr. Todd lived for many years in Genesee county, and is said to have been the first white settler where the presentous city of Flint now stands. Three children ex-Mr. Todd, E. A. Todd, Mr.
Albert Todd, and Mrs. David Gould, all residents of Owosso, survive him. The funeral services were held on Thursday morning in Christ Church, Rev. Mr.
Matrau officiating, and were attended by a large number of the citizens of Owosso, who joined with those near and dear to the deceased in paying a merited tribute of respect to the memory of one who in life had been friendly to all.

Another Veteran at Rest.
On the 18th instant Mr. Emanuel N.
Young of the city, aged eighty years, one month and seventeen days, died of neuralgia of the stomach and old age. Mr.
Young was born March 27, 1803, in Montgomery county New York, and lived there during his minority, and then came to Cayuga county, where he resided about four years. In 1827 he moved to the land county, Michigan, where he lived until 1845, when he moved to Shiawassee county, and became a resident of the city of Owosso in 1862, where he has since resided.

On the 5th of February, 1824, he married Vernella G. Gould, an elder sister of Hon. Amos Gould. Twelve children were the fruit of this union, eleven of whom with his wife, now about 77 years of age, survive him. Of his surviving children John R. is now a merchant at Utica, Michigan; Russell, of Michigan City, Indiana; James H., a farmer of Gratiot county; Delia G., wife of Shepard Glover, of Osego, Allegan county; Amos G., now of Lake Benton, Minnesota; Emily M., wife of W.
R. Smith, of Cuyler, Etta R. wife of L.
Fairman, at whose residence Mr. Young died; Nicholas E. and Helen A., wife of J.
W. Zimmerman, all of Owosso.

The funeral was held at the residence of L. Fairman, Rev. L. B. Platt officiating, on Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, and was largely attended.

The family desire us to return to their friends their warmest thanks for their many acts of kindness during these hours of sadness and sorrow.

DIED.

In Perry, May 11, 1882, at her father's, Mr. L. Reed, Mrs. William Wallace of Owosso City, aged 21 years.

Scarcely two years had passed since she put on the Bridal robe, and bidding a circle of warm friends farewell, with a loving trusting heart to share in the joys and sorrows of him she so dearly loved.

Not feeling in usual health, and hoping a mother's care would restore her, she came home about a week ago, where by the aid of the physician she seemed so much better, she wrote her husband she would be with him again on Saturday, on which day with a husband's love all pains were taken for her ease and comfort, but instead a note summoning him to her. Arriving at ten in the evening he found her more comfortable, yet before three the next day that terrible disease, dropsy, had done its work and the stricken husband, father, mother, brothers, sisters and many friends were ensured in grief.

At the funeral service some pointed remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Welcher from Mat. 24:44. "Therefore he ye also ready, after which we laid her to rest to wait the reunion of loved ones at the resurrection morn."

Home with all its loving care Could not thy spirit stay, Which once the Master called for thee How quickly thou didst say—"Fare thee well, my pleasant home, No more I'll greet you there, I'll be with you, oh, yes; so soon, I'll be with you in mansions fair.
Our parents' duty leads me of grief, My suffering how is o'er,
For my soul's soiled, for you I'll watch, On that immortal shore."
Mrs. C. V. W.
Perry, Mich.

At Rest—Peace to his Ashes.
It is our lot to be called upon this week to record the death of Bright's disease of the Kidneys, at his late residence in this city, on Sunday afternoon, of Hon.
Amos Gould, aged seventy-three years, five months and eleven days. It is said death loves a shining mark, and in this case it certainly reached one who was a leader in influence, business enterprise, and the public weal. An early settler in the then embryo village of Owosso, he has been actively identified with its growth and prosperity for about forty years, and many very many of those things which today constitute the beauty and prosperity, both socially and in a business point of view, of this city, were inspired by his genius and promoted by his public spirit.

Mr. Gould's early home was in Cayuga county, New York. He fitted for college in the Academy at Aurora, and in 1827 entered as a Sophomore in Hamilton College, at Clinton, N. Y. Latter he engaged at Auburn in teaching, and studied law for a term of years with Hon. William H.
Seward, and afterwards with Mr. Theodore Spencer, son of Chief Justice Spencer, of the New York Supreme Court, and was admitted to the bar of that court in the fall of 1832. In 1841 he was appointed by Gov. Seward a Master in Chancery and soon after Injunction Master for the Seventh Judicial Circuit by Chief Justice Welworth, one of the ablest Jurists in the State of New York, and held these offices until he removed to Michigan in 1843. In 1844 he was elected Probate Judge of Shiawassee county, and in 1852 to the State Senate. He was, also, at one time Prosecuting Attorney of this county, and from 1844 to 1850 Supervisor of the Township of Owosso. In 1856 he was the Democratic candidate for Attorney General, but with the balance of the State ticket was defeated at the polls, though he received a very flattering vote in this and the adjacent counties. After the outbreak in 1861, Mr. Gould became an earnest supporter of the Government, and since that time has actively co-operated with the Republican party, persistently refusing however to be a candidate for any office, but doing his best as a citizen to secure the permanent peace and prosperity of the Nation. On the incorporation of the city in 1860 he was chosen as its first Mayor, and in 1865 he helped to organize the First National Bank of Owosso, of which he was President until his decease.

Judge Gould was for many years an active member of the Congregational church in this city, and since its organization in 1853 has been the chairman of the Board of Trustees.

In 1841 he married Miss Louise Peck, of New York, who survives him. All his family relations have been extremely pleasant, and four of the five children that have blessed this union are left to mourn his sudden departure, to that upper and better world to which all our hopes and aspirations tend.

The funeral services were held at his late residence, Rev. Mr. Platt officiating, on Wednesday afternoon and were attended by a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbors who gathered to perform the last sad rites for one, who for many years had been truly their neighbor, and a representative man, in all that constitutes the higher and nobler purposes of life.

The Clerk presented the following veto from the Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY OF OWOSSO,
May 10, 1882.

To the Hon. Common Council of the City of Owosso:

GENTLEMEN:—A resolution having been adopted by your Honorable Body on the 9th inst. authorizing E. O. Dewey, Publisher of THE TIMES, to do the city printing for the year commencing May 12th, 1882 and ending May 12th, 1883, for the sum of ninety dollars, I have this day suspended the operation of the resolution as follows: Rule 25 provides that no resolution imposing or requiring the payment of or expenditure of money or creating a debt or liability therefor shall be put on its passage or passed at the same meeting at which it was introduced, unless by unanimous consent and shall be referred to a standing or special committee.

This was not done. Two reliable newspapers are published in the city and each are desirous of doing the printing. An opportunity would have been given to receive proposals; which in my opinion would have resulted in the contract being let to the lowest bidder, thereby saving the funds of the public.

C. H. COSSIT, Mayor.

On motion of Ald. Wells the vote taken at last meeting in regard to city printing was reconsidered.

It was moved that rule 25 be suspended for the evening, which motion was lost.
Ayes, 5. Nays, 3.

Ald. Bedford moved that the committee on Printing be instructed to receive bids and report at the next meeting, which motion was carried.

The following resolution was presented, which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means:

Resolved, By the Common Council of the city of Owosso, that the salary of the City Clerk, be and is hereby fixed at the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for the year.

Ald. Hershey moved that a committee of two be appointed by the Mayor to investigate the business of the Pound Master, which motion was carried.

Ald. Wells moved that the committee on Fire Department be instructed to get some suitable place to put the tank for gasoline, which motion was carried.

Ald. Wells moved that $300 be taken from the Highway fund and placed to the credit of the contingent, which motion was carried.

On motion the Council adjourned for one week.

E. A. TODD, JR.,
City Clerk.
